Located in Central North Carolina, Salisbury VAMC is a tertiary care facility affiliated with the University of North Carolina School of Pharmacy, Campbell University College of Pharmacy, Wingate University School of Pharmacy, the University of Florida School of Pharmacy, Wake Forest University School of Medicine, and Virginia College of Osteopathic Medicine. It serves as a training site for students and residents in multiple disciplines, including: nursing, dentistry, optometry, pharmacy, psychiatry, rehabilitation, and medicine. In summer of 2011, a new infusion center was opened that now allows veterans to get hematology and chemotherapy treatments at the Salisbury medical center.

The medical center provides medical, surgical, psychiatric, and ambulatory care services to 84,107 veterans in the central Piedmont service area. It boasts large full-service clinics in Winston-Salem as well as in our newly expanded clinic in Charlotte. A Community-Based Outpatient Clinic (CBOC) in Hickory was also opened in summer of 2008.

Salisbury VAMC has clinical pharmacy specialists and clinical pharmacists (all with prescribing privileges) in primary care, long-term care, mental health clinics, infectious disease, and acute care. The medical center also provides home-based primary care and hospice care for veterans.

Location:

Salisbury is conveniently located near several major North Carolina cities, including Charlotte, Winston-Salem, and Greensboro. Salisbury is within driving distance of the mountains (3 hours) and beaches (4 hours). It has a rich history and plays host to many cultural events year-round.
